

TO BUYA DA CHREESMAS TREE

Why you no shina da shoe today?
 I sella da peenots, you see;
 I sella da peenots to gitta da pay
 To buya da Chreesmas tree.

I go to da contry da odder night,
 To swipa da Chreesmas tree;

EXCHANGES

Comments upon a few of our exchanges:

"The Rail Splitter," Lincoln, Illinois: Your sketches are especially good.

"The Wa-Hi Journal," Walla Walla, Washington: A very newsy paper.

"The Tonic," Forrest, Illinois: "Good things often come in small packages" might apply to your paper.

"The Searchlight," Lexington, Illinois: We enjoy enchanging with you. Come again.

"The Broadcaster," Watseka, Illinois: We like your paper, but where are your exchanges?

"The Spotlight," Rantoul, Illinois: Your editorials are fine, especially the one headed, "Fight! Fight! Fight!"

"The Pontiac Chief," Pontiac, Illinois: Your paper had lots of "pep" this time. Keep it up.

"The Proviso Pageant," Maywood, Illinois: Your Thanksgiving number was especially good.

Our magazine exchange list is deficient this issue. We realize that most schools have papers and annuals, but we would like very much for those schools who have magazines to exchange with us for mutual improvement.

—EXCHANGE EDITOR.

F. T. H. S. GRAD ON CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

Harold Odell, a former F. T. H. S. student, now at Bradley, played in thirty-three quarters of the possible thirty-six in football this last season. SCRAPS AND SCRIBBLES

Dear Lotta Fun: It is with the greatest alarm that I note the voice of our cheerleader, Henny, is on the decline. Far less often than usual does his noble voice rise on the air at football games (at least after the first half!) Oh Henny! Won't you try throat tablets? A Football Fanny.

L. F.: Who said, "To the victor belongeth the spoils"? Let's get after that guy! After some of our football games our pretty boys are spoiled all right, but that doesn't help us to victory. What's wrong with us, huh?

E. F. Grouchey.

E. F. G.: Now, I've got you! You're turning pessimistic. I suppose you're one of these people who just won't understand—Fairbury hasn't been acting natural all year. It isn't always the person who has the highest score who wins the game anyway (so quotes Prof. Stevens), and Fairbury sure wins that way.

Lotta.

Dear Lotta: I'm worried over these freshmen. They go so slowly out of the assembly that I'm almost late for classes. Do you advise using a pin or a firecracker?

Dorothy Vernon.

Dear Dottie V.: Oh, don't use anything so violent on those freshmen! Don't you know that some of them are intellects! Yes, really truly ones. They're exhausted by applying themselves so hard and by carrying such a heavy weight as their brains around with them. It's rumored that one of them has 1,234,567,890 creases in her brain and she knows something for every crease! We think it's probable that she has only 987,654,321 creases—but you never can tell. Don't bother them, please. Just go the other way around.

THE PESSIMIST'S COMPLAINT

When you're feeling hopeful, the lowest grades you get;
 When betting on a football game, you generally lost your bet;
 When the morning's at its coldest, you never get a ride;
 On the teacher's little quizzes, you can't answer right besides.
 Why is it, I ask you?
